

Won the talent award

14yr old Fredrik Strand Halland has won Bergen's talent award for 2007.

WEB TV: Talent Award to Fredrik Strand Halland

Fredrik Strand Halland in Kjempesjansen He has el guitar in his arms, and blues in his fingers, now he has been NOK 15 000 richer.

I was really happy. It was absolutely fantastic, he says. The 14-year-old blues guitarist will use the money to travel to the U.S. with his band.

Here, they will be playing with other young talent from the USA, for charity Golden Heart in Hollywood.

Price distributing and Commissioner Henning Warloe speaks warmly of the winner.- From the time I heard him the first time this winter, I was absolutely sure that this was the proper recipient of this year, he said.

Can you describe the feeling when you first heard him play guitar?
The best expression of it, is that I was completely blown away. I was very impressed, says the Commissioner.

KRISTIAN Ervik
kristian.ervik @ nrk.no
ANDERS Orset
Published 27.07.2007 24:55.