

Konsert på høyden

Solveig Slettahjell, Fredrik Strand Halland, Mads Ousdal og Sjur Hjeltnes shall ensure that 3000 people from Bergen get in the Christmas mood this weekend.

Concert

BLUE GUITAR: Solveig Slettahjell, Bergen's young guitar talent Fredrik Strand Halland, Nordic Tenors, Tord Gustavsen and Shur Miljeteig the attractions of the show as directed by Mads Ousdal.

Fredrik Strand Halland (16) is known for his rough blues playing. And the guitar plays the main role during the concerts this weekend too.

- I am going to perform Jimi Hendrix's "Little Wing" and Reiersrud / Kleive "The Church is an old house." It is not new to me to be playing these songs. I will also do "Silent Night" and Delicious in the earth "Together with the other artists.
- This is solemn and fun, according to Halland. The 16-year-old has just started on the music class on Langhaugen. Music and the school will take much of my time in 2010.

Fredrik Strand Halland – "I might be going to the US to participate on South By Southwest festival in March. I am also currently working in the studio to finish my next cd. Hopefully it will be ready before this summer. I don't have much free time, says 16-year-old".

FRANK JOHNSEN

Share on Origo

Published 18.12.2009 at 06:00 Updated 18.12.2009 at 06:00

<http://www.ba.no/puls/musikk/konsert/article4766524.ece>